

Treatment Integrity Measure for Homework Strategies:

Steps to follow:	Yes or No Response:
School Recommendations
Is there a person(s) selected from each grade to act as the communication liaison for parents to contact regarding homework?
Is there consideration given to parent schedules when a school or teacher conference is scheduled?
Have common planning periods for groups of teachers been facilitated during the school day in order to plan homework together?
Has a designated release time been assigned for teachers to communicate with parents on a regular basis?
Has a study hall time been allocated for students to complete their homework?
Has the school attempted to recruit community volunteers to assist students in completing homework?
Has the school attempted to form homework clubs or other clubs to offer students' assistance?
Has the school utilized a peer tutoring program for homework completion?
Has the school offered parent training, including recommendations, on how to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Schedule homework as a daily activity</li> <li>• Establish a homework routine</li> <li>• Decrease distractions and review homework</li> <li>• Provide praise and positive reinforcement</li> <li>• Allow for breaks</li> </ul>
Has the school offered information to students, including recommendations, on how to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Keep a homework planner</li> <li>• Attend parent/teacher conferences</li> <li>• Self monitor homework behavior</li> </ul>
Teacher Recommendations
Have you established a communication routine that facilitates students' knowledge about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Major class projects</li> <li>• Frequency and consistency of homework</li> <li>• Homework Planner</li> </ul>
Have you established a system of positive reinforcement for homework completion that includes individual or classwide strategies?
Do you consistently review assignments with students?
Do you provide prompt feedback to all students?
Do you indicate appropriate time frames for homework?	